foreword

Tenderfoot freshman,
Working toward that cap and gown:
Ratting . . . your first Circus . . . growing pains of Trial and error.
A year goes by and you grow a little wiser.
Wise and witty sophomore,
Working toward that cap and gown:
In-betweener . . . the slump . . . seeing things a
Little clearer.
A year goes by and you grow a little older.
Upperclass junior,
Working toward that cap and gown:
Rings . . . responsibilities . . . marching under the Seniors' caps.
A year goes by and you grow a little maturer.
First class senior,
Reaching that cap and gown:
"Finals" . . . Senior Assembly . . . looking back
At old Alma Mater—
Seniors at last!
It took a long while
To grow just a little,
And just a short time
To learn quite a lot.

MISS OLIVE T. ILER

dedication

Because of your deep and sincere interest in Longwood . . .

Because of your diligent service and devotion to your department of Health and Physical Education and to the extracurricular activities . . .

Because of your quest for knowledge and your ability to awaken this in others . . .

Because of your friendliness, thoughtfulness, and understanding . . .

Because of our admiration for you and for that for which you stand . . .

We, the staff of the 1964 VIRGINIAN, dedicate our annual to you—

MISS OLIVE T. ILER

Circus, sponsored by Alpha Kappa Gamma is a medium in which all of Longwood's students can participate. There is a competitive spirit as each class unites to put on the best skit. The Rotunda sings, rehearsals, and rallies give each girl a chance to show her class and school loyalty. It provides the joy of entertainment, the satisfaction of a job well done, the thrill of good sportsmanship and a closer union of students. Circus is Longwood at its best—a memory “we will cherish our whole lives through.”

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We, the staff of the 1964 VIRGINIAN, would like to express our gratitude to the following who helped make this book possible:

Miss Virginia Bedford, general advisor, and Mr. N. O. Myers, business advisor, for their advice and assistance pertaining to layout, art work, and engravings.

Mr. Foster B. Gresham, literary advisor, for his valuable suggestions.

Mr. Jim Gentry and Gentry Studio for their excellent photography.

Mr. John E. Allen for his many photographic contributions.

Mr. William Blackwell, Mr. Herbert Craft, and Lynchburg Engraving Company for their advice and assistance pertaining to layout, art work, and engravings.

Mr. W. L. Burton and C. W. Warthen Company for making this book possible.

Mrs. Eleanor Bobbitt and Miss Brockenbrough for their "secretive" work.

The staff, a special thanks, for many hours of hard work which they so willingly contributed.

To Marcy Hynes and Jackie Leath, next year's editor and business manager, we wish very much happiness and success in their publication.

Ach blossom,

I can't believe we have only known each other since summer school of '65. We certainly did have fun that summer, what with the suitcase war and ditching the hamsters - - - - - Also I'll never forget the endless hours of bridge - our record of 1.5 hours in two days. It's a sheer wonder we ever got our work done - what little bit we did. Then this year we have our ~~trip~~ trip to the Pa. Academy of Sciences to remember. I can't believe we were so fortunate to hear so many wonderful papers - one and 30 seconds of another. We have many things to remember about this trip - smuggling in beer, locking Gwen out of the room, and of course Tony, Tony.

Well, that's enough about the good old times! Sandra, I wish you all the happiness in the world for your future with Johnny. I know you will be happy and succeed at everything, an attempt. Be good - but not too good. Because then you won't have any fun. See you this summer.

Love,
Sandra
